

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Why not allow for more stringent rules to be made (kept) on the State level? We used to get evening calls all the time including during dinner and like the 'no call list'. Leave the States alone on this one !